

U. S. RECEIVES NO REQUEST FROM SPAIN

HAS NO INTIMATION THAT JOINT ACTION IN MEXICAN TROUBLE ASKED

Spanish Embassy Has No Word From Madrid as to Decision of Cabinet—Villa Troops Take Guadalupe—Food Situation at Tampico Serious.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The United States government has received no application from Spain for joint action with other nations in the Mexican situation, Secretary Bryan said tonight, nor has any intimation reached the state department that such a step was contemplated.

Officials learned with much interest of the press reports, that Spain had addressed a communication to the powers on the situation in Mexico. At the Spanish embassy it was said no word had been received from Madrid as to the decision of the cabinet, but that a full report of the expulsion from Mexico of Jose Caro, the Spanish minister, on which it is presumed here Spain's reported action is based, had been sent by Mr. Caro through the embassy here to the Spanish foreign office.

The peculiar status of all diplomatic representatives in a country wherein no government is recognized, it was believed by many officials, would probably override the technical point that the Spanish minister could enjoy no diplomatic immunity because he had not presented his credentials. It was suggested that Mr. Caro's appointment by the Spanish government would, in the circumstances, constitute sufficient proof of his official status for any defect of government and should inspire the same respect as that usually given diplomatic representatives.

The Spanish government may have addressed a note to all the powers reciting Caro's experiences with the Carranza government, officials here believe, but until the nature of Spain's suggestions are known they declined to speculate on the probable course of the American government.

That conditions in Mexico have grown worse have been admitted at the department. There has been disposition to regard the expulsion of the Spanish minister as a personal matter between General Carranza and Mr. Caro, but whether or not this was a fixed policy of the Washington government and would be influenced by any formal diplomatic action taken by Spain was a matter of wide conjecture.

Villa Takes Guadalupe.
El Paso, Texas, Feb. 13.—Guadalupe, second largest city in Mexico, fell today into the hands of the Villa troops according to a telegram received tonight by the Associated Press.

Food Situation Serious.
Washington, Feb. 13.—A report to the state department today from Tampico says the food situation there is serious. The local government has imported corn from Vera Cruz and sold it to the people at a nominal price.

About 300 Americans left Tampico recently for the United States. A number of destitute families in the interior also are to be sent north.

TRY SOLDIER ON CHARGE OF MAKING SKETCHES OF CANAL

PANAMA, Feb. 13.—Private Charles H. Hill of the Tenth Infantry, U. S. A., who has been doing lock guard duty at Miraflores, was tried this morning by a court martial on the charge of having made sketches of the locks, taken notes and drawn a few unimportant maps. The sketches, notes and maps were meager. He had a letter addressed to the Japanese charge at Panama but Japan is not represented on the Isthmus. The decision of the court has not been announced. Hill says he was using this means for getting out of the service. Two foreign tourists who have been taking photographs of the Panama canal locks and other works as well as the governor's residence, have been under observation for several days. The case is not thought to be important and although the tourists have been under surveillance by the military authorities no other action has been taken thus far.

KILBANE BEATS MORGAN.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—Johnny Kilbane, the feather-weight champion, had the better of the six round bout here tonight with Eddie Morgan of England. The first two rounds were about even and from then to the end of the fight Kilbane showed championship form to the disadvantage of Morgan. Tonight was the second time the two men had met in three weeks in six round bouts.

CHARGE UNION SAILORS WITH KIDNAPING

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 13.—Fourteen sailors forcibly taken from the Steam Schooner Columbia in harbor here last night and spirited away by armed men on a chartered tug, turned up on the water front today and accused members of the sailors union of the kidnaping. They said six of their number were taken to union headquarters and held there all night. The Columbia picked up another crew today and prepared to sail for Chile.

SAYS "STAY AT HOME" IS MEANS FOR NEUTRALS TO AVOID DANGER

Vossische Zeitung States If America Has No Means to Stop Shipment of Arms to England, German Naval Forces Will Find a Means to Prevent It.

Berlin, Feb. 13, via London, Feb. 14.—(2:15 a. m.)—The Vossische Zeitung says:

"If the American government has no means to prevent the shipment of arms to England because this would be a breach of neutrality then Germany's naval forces will find a means to prevent it. If innocent powers suffer thereby they have the means to avoid the danger, namely 'stay at home'.

"If they act otherwise they will then expose themselves to the suspicion of acting against German interests."

Influential organs like the Frankfurter Zeitung and the Hamburger Nachrichten express surprise that the United States sends a protest to Germany after ignoring Great Britain's declaration of the entire North Sea as a theatre of war.

The text of the American note was published here late today and as a consequence the comment is brief.

Count Ernest Reventlow, the naval expert however, wrote prior to its publication:

"Should the United States wish a breach with the German empire, we can assure them that the German people as one man, will stand behind the government if it adheres with firm determination to the stand taken with mature deliberation."

"The entire German people would demand and expect this unyielding firmness of the government."

Terms Note to England Feeble.

London, Feb. 14.—(1:25 a. m.)—A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam quotes an editorial from the Frankfurter Zeitung of Feb. 12, which in commenting on the summaries of the American notes says: "President Wilson's note to England does not deserve the name of a protest. It is feeble, like the president's entire policy so far towards England."

"Washington's recipe for its relations with the British is: 'wash his fur but don't wet him'. Washington however, appears to have another recipe for Germany."

"If certain people in America do not yet understand that we are fighting for existence and that we cannot be guided by what Mr. Bryan, whose son-in-law and sympathies are in the English army, considers 'good form' we cannot help them. In six days from today the sea around Great Britain and Ireland will be for the German warships, including submarines, a war zone and every hostile merchant vessel encountered will be destroyed."

The article concludes with the following reference to the United States:

"A state which day and night works in the production of cannons, bombs and armored motor cars for our enemies and by way of amends prays 'God for peace in the churches' need not expect that its warnings will particularly affect us morally."

SAYS NEGRO SIGNS STATEMENT HE SWORE FALSELY IN BECKER CASE

Marshall is Said to Have Declared in Affidavit That He Did Not Know Rose, Webber or Schepps.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—John B. Johnston, a New York lawyer, said here tonight that James Marshall, the negro who was a witness in the case of Charles Becker, under sentence of death for the murder of Herman Rosenthal in New York, had signed a statement tonight in the form of an affidavit to the effect that he swore falsely at the second trial of Becker.

Marshall was arrested here last night on a minor charge and was released today. His wife is alleged to have made a remark in the presence of a newspaperman that Marshall had been an important witness in the Becker case.

When seen later in the day, according to Mr. Johnston, Marshall said he had sworn falsely in the Becker case. Marshall is said to have testified in the case that he saw Becker talking to "Bal Jack" Rose, "Bridget Webber" and "Sam" Schepps. In the affidavit signed by Marshall tonight Mr. Johnston said Marshall declared he did not know Rose, Webber or Schepps.

TAKE FUGITIVE AFTER FOUR YEAR SEARCH

ARREST MAN CHARGED WITH BEING IMPLICATED IN DYNAMITING

Matthew A. Schmidt is Alleged to Be One of Men Who Went With J. B. McNamara to Buy Dynamite—Is Held in New York Without Bail.

New York, Feb. 13.—Matthew A. Schmidt, 34 years old, was arrested here tonight as a fugitive from justice on an indictment found in Los Angeles in October 1910, charging him with having been implicated in dynamiting the Los Angeles Times building. The arrest was made on Upper Broadway where detectives had traced him after a search of four years.

Detective William J. Burns, who accompanied the officer making the arrest, said the indictment charges that Schmidt was one of several men who went with J. B. McNamara to the works of the Giant Powder company in California and purchased 1,000 pounds of dynamite.

Schmidt was held in magistrate's court, on a short affidavit, without bail until Feb. 24th to await extradition.

When arraigned before a magistrate the prisoner said he was a mechanic, 34 years old, but refused to answer the other customary questions. After the arraignment however, the magistrate said the man had confessed to him in his chambers that he was Matthew A. Schmidt as alleged in the Los Angeles indictment.

Detective Burns stated that the arrest of Schmidt was the outgrowth of an investigation into a bomb explosion which occurred in a six story flat house on Lexington avenue in this city on July 4th of last year and which killed three persons, injured others and partly wrecked the building. Detectives who examined the premises became convinced that the bomb used was of the same type as that used in blowing up the Los Angeles Times building and similar to those placed at the homes of General Harrison Gray Otis, owner of the Times and of the secretary of the manufacturers' association. The investigators soon struck a trail which was followed and led to the arrest of Schmidt.

Is Said to Have Stolen Explosive.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 13.—Matthew Schmidt, arrested in New York in connection with the dynamiting of the Times building, was one of the men who, according to the district attorney's office, were accused of having stolen dynamite from the Giant Powder Works near Richmond, California. With James B. McNamara he is said to have brought the explosive to Los Angeles on board a launch.

After the dynamiting of the Times building, Schmidt disappeared and no trace of him was found.

SHANAHAN ANNOUNCES THAT NO "DEAL" HAS BEEN MADE WITH BROWNE

Some Take Letter From Browne to Mean Deal Had Been Made to Elect Chicagoan—Dairymen Want Deal Broken.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13.—David Shanahan, representative from Chicago, today announced that no "deal" has been made with Lee O'Neil Browne, Democrat, whereby Shanahan is to be elected speaker on the first ballot next week, the beginning of the seventh week of the speakership deadlock.

Browne yesterday sent letters to his friends calling them into a caucus Monday afternoon. The letter stated that it was probable that a speaker would be elected on the first ballot Tuesday and was taken by many to mean that Browne had reached an understanding with some Republican. As the Browne letter voted for Shanahan on several ballots last week some took the letter to mean that a deal had been effected with Shanahan.

Want Deal Broken.

Edwardsville, Ill., Feb. 13.—A resolution sent by the Southern Illinois Milk Producers' association to numerous members of the state legislature calls upon them to break the existing deadlock over the election of a speaker in the Illinois house of representatives, it was announced here tonight by the secretary of the association. The president it was said, undoubtedly will make a number of political addresses on the way to and from the San Francisco exposition. Even should he be kept from attending the exposition in March as now planned, by an extra session of congress it was said that he would make the trip later. New York, Feb. 13.—Matty Baldwin, the Boston lightweight, outpointed Willie Beecher of this city, in a ten round bout in Brooklyn tonight. Baldwin's ring experience and cleverness offset the local boy's efforts.

War News Summarized

The German people look upon the retreat of the Russians in east Prussia as a great victory for the German army under Field Marshal Von Hindenburg. Military critics in Berlin view this success as presaging further victories which will have an important effect on the final result.

In Poland and the Carpathians nothing of vital importance has been announced by either side. Belgium and France are playing a secondary part as compared with the east in the campaign. There have been spasmodic engagements and artillery actions, but nothing has occurred in the western zone to modify the positions of the opposing forces.

The German foreign office, according to Berlin despatches, is reasonably satisfied with the contents of the American note respecting Germany's declaration of a war zone in British waters, expressing the view that the terms are couched in more friendly language than had been expected and that from the American side certain of the points raised are justified.

Germany will reply in the same friendly manner, it is asserted, but will adhere to its own viewpoint.

The German minister at the Hague has issued another warning to neutrals to avoid the waters mentioned in the German proclamation as dangerous for merchant ships of all nations.

The British foreign office in its reply to the American note concerning the use of the American flag on the Steamers Ausonia it is understood will contend the British merchant vessels have been advised to use neutral flags only in case of emergency.

German east Africa is now completely cleared of British troops, according to a German official statement.

Since the war with Turkey began 49,000 Turkish prisoners have passed Ciscaucasia on the way to the interior, according to a Petrograd despatch.

RECOMMENDS RE-ADJUSTMENT OF INSURANCE BUSINESS IN STATE

Potts to Ask for Legislative Investigation—Has not Made Details Public.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13.—A re-adjustment of the insurance business in Illinois has been recommended to the General Assembly by Rufus M. Potts, state superintendent of insurance. He has not made the details of his recommendations public but his position on a great many vital questions already has been indicated in various ways.

A legislative investigation will be asked by the superintendent calling for an inquiry into matters which his authority would not permit him to reach in the investigation made by the insurance department. Bills will be introduced carrying out these ideas.

A bill prohibiting a re insurance company from operating under other than its true corporate name will be presented. This is designed to eliminate the so-called underwriters agencies.

The activities of the department have not been limited to the fire insurance field. It is understood that defects are alleged to have been uncovered in other lines of the insurance business and that legislation on these points will be recommended.

SENATE DEMOCRATS TO PRESS CLOTURE RULE

AGREE IN CAUCUS TO SUPPORT AMENDMENT TO LIMIT DEBATE

Seven Insurgents Who Have Voted With Republicans on Shipping Bill Are Not Present at Caucus—Prepare to Rush Compromise Bill Through House.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Senate Democrats in caucus tonight unanimously agreed to support an amendment to the senate rules which would limit debate. No specific cloture plan was approved, although special rules for the shipping bill and various general amendments have been offered. The seven insurgent Democrats who have voted with the Republicans on the shipping bill did not attend the caucus and no binding vote was taken.

"The caucus unanimously resolved," said Senator Kern, the Democratic leader, "to press a cloture rule. No vote was taken but this was the unanimous expression of opinion and would be binding on all Democrats except those who bolt."

Senator Kern said Senators Fletcher, Simmons and Martin, the committee in charge of the shipping bill, would lead the cloture fight with a free hand as to methods and the final form of the amendment to the rules. Some Republican support, at least for a general rule, is expected.

In the house preparations were made to rush a compromise bill through under special rule after it has been approved by a caucus of house Democrats next Monday night. The caucus petition was circulated today and it was said some Democrats refused to sign it.

"It's a 5 to 1 shot there will be an extra session of congress," was Speaker Clark's comment on the situation tonight.

Democratic leaders were confident the revised bill would go through the house without serious difficulty. Senate Republicans however, said the compromise failed to eliminate the principal objections and would meet the same obstructions in the senate as the pending bill. They asserted the compromise would permit the purchase of beligerent owned ships and would allow the government to continue indefinitely in the shipping business.

PANAMA POLICE AND SOLDIERS FIGHT; EIGHT REPORTED DEAD

Many Combatants are Wounded in Trouble Which Starts in Tenderloin District Following Argument.

Panama, Feb. 13.—Midnight—A fight between soldiers and native policemen here late tonight resulted according to first reports of the conflict, in the deaths of five policemen and three soldiers and the wounding of many of the combatants.

A carnival is in progress and many soldiers were on leave to attend the festivities.

The fight started in a resort in the tenderloin district following an argument. The police reserves were called out and hurried to the scene. The American military authorities also took an active part in seeking to prevent further trouble. Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the canal zone forces, proceeded in person to the scene.

The actual number of dead and wounded was unknown at the time of the filing of this despatch—midnight. The entire city was greatly disturbed and further trouble was feared although precautions had been taken to prevent more fighting.

During the past few years minor troubles have arisen several times between American soldiers and sailors and the Panama police.

GERMANY STATES TERMS OF NOTE ARE FRIENDLIER THAN EXPECTED

Recognizes that From the American Standpoint Certain of the Points Raised Quite Justified.

Berlin, via London, Feb. 13.—(11:10 p. m.)—The German foreign office, after studying the American note respecting the declaration by Germany of a war zone in the waters around Great Britain and Ireland, states that the terms are much friendlier than previously had been expected by reason of the incomplete newspaper despatches published here.

The foreign office had not anticipated that the United States would accept the German position without objections and it even recognizes that from the American standpoint certain of the points raised are quite justified.

Germany however, it is declared, intends to adhere to its own viewpoint. Various officials, diplomatic, naval and military, whose opinions have been sought profess to see no elements of danger in the situation and are convinced that the naval campaign can be conducted on the lines laid down in the admiralty proclamation without involving difficulties between the United States and Germany.

Should Protest at Berlin.

Paris, Feb. 13.—(5:34 p. m.)—Discussing the American notes to Germany and Great Britain the Temps today recalls that of Secretary of State Lewis Cass in correspondence with Great Britain in 1860, declared that the papers and not the flag of a vessel constituted its nationality and also that the Americans used a flag other than their own on a vessel of war to approach Guam in 1898. The newspaper points out that the Italian marine code criticizes the right of a vessel to fly a neutral flag by allowing the use of the Italian flag on the commercial marine of a belligerent. It is at Berlin the Temps concludes, that neutral countries should protest and it supposes that this is the American point of view.

MAN IS MURDERED AND ROBBED OF $10,000 BY UNKNOWN PERSONS

WALSBURG, Colo., Feb. 13.—William Dick, an official of the Pison Supply company, was shot, killed and robbed by unknown persons late today near Laveta. Dick was carrying approximately $10,000 in currency from Walsburg to Oakview to be used in cashing checks of men employed by the Oakdale Coal Company.

Dick was attacked five miles from Walsburg, supposedly by two Mexicans, according to reports received here. Three bullets pierced his body. Officers and citizens from Walsburg are searching for trace of the holdups.

It has been customary for the Pison Supply company to cash the pay checks of the miners in that vicinity. Dick left Walsburg this afternoon in an automobile with funds for that purpose.

EFFORT OF "WETS" FAILS.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 13.—An effort of the "wets" in the Iowa house today to stay the fight against them failed. The speaker ruled him out of order.

RUSS MAKING STAND ON THEIR FRONTIER

MOVE MAY BE ONLY TO DELAY THE GERMAN ADVANCE

Egyptian Army Annihilates Forces of Turks and Arabs—Germans Make Repeated Terrific Attacks in Poland—Quiet Still Prevails in France, Flanders and Alsace.

London, Feb. 13.—(10:40 p. m.)—Berlin is celebrating the evacuation of east Prussia by the Russians which is hailed in the German capital as another great victory for Field Marshal Von Hindenburg; England is not attempting to hide her elation at the success of her airmen's raid on the German positions in Belgium and all Europe is eagerly discussing the American notes to Great Britain and Germany and contemplating what the replies will be.

Great Britain has already intimated that British merchant ships have been advised to use neutral flags only in case of emergency and no general use of such flags is anticipated.

The German minister at the Hague has issued another warning to neutrals to the effect that, in view of the alleged declaration of all the British ports as war ports and the use of neutral flags by British ships, it would be dangerous for neutral merchantmen to visit the prescribed waters after Feb. 18th.

Russ Making Stand on Frontier.

So far as the east Russian situation is concerned the Russian official report indicates that the Russians, having evacuated the greater part of the German province, are making a stand on or near their frontier—whether for a pitched battle or only to delay the German advance it will take a few days to tell.

On the last occasion that Von Hindenburg drove them from east Prussia the Russians fell back to their fortified lines between Niemen and the German frontier, where they defeated the Germans. On the occasion, however, they have had more time to prepare their positions and may give battle before the fortifications are reached. The Russians already claim to have repulsed one German attack near Lyck.

Throughout Poland, where fierce fighting has occurred during the past week, the battles now consist of artillery engagements, while in the Carpathians fighting of more or less severity continues. The Germans are making repeated terrific attacks in an effort to capture the heights of Kozioukwa, in Tukholka Pass, which they won and lost twice since last Sunday. They are now entrenched within forty paces of the Russian positions and, despite their heavy losses, are apparently hopeful of capturing them. On the rest of the Carpathian front the Russians seemingly are making progress.

Egyptians Defeat Turks.

The Egyptian army has just placed to its credit a brilliant feat by annihilating a force of 200 Turks and Arabs officered by Germans, who were preparing to attack Tor at the entrance of the Gulf of Suez. In the view of British experts the air raid on Belgium proves that the British airmen are superior to the Germans and have a great advantage in the possession of a base on the continent as well as in England, for while the British, if they are unable to return, can land in France, the Germans must make the round trip across the sea.

In France, Flanders and Alsace there has been little or no fighting of importance; that is, so far as the official reports disclose.

It is announced that the leaders in the South African rebellion are to be put on trial for treason and, in addition to other punishment, may be sued for looting and for damage done by themselves or their followers, while the men of means will lose all their property. Meanwhile, the government has announced its intention of pushing with vigor the campaign against German southwest Africa.

As a result of Premier Asquith's announcement of his belief that wheat would fall in price, it sold at Northampton today at 58 shillings a quarter, a decline of two shillings.

Going It Alone.

The campaign for city offices in Springfield is marked by a bitterness which is fortunately not apparent in this city. They have another condition there, too, which is different from Jacksonville in that there are several distinct combinations of candidates who are seeking to further each other's interests. Mayor Schnepf has two or three men who are seeking to be elected with him. C. T. Bauman, Commissioner Spaulding and two or three others are seeking to win with a ticket which will include them, while Former Mayor Deveraux has a coterie of candidates who are doing all possible for his success and their own.

Here in Jacksonville, there seem to be at present, at least, no special alignments and each candidate is simply looking after his own interests. There have been several attempts to get various candidates for commissioner to definitely associate themselves with other candidates and to make their fight together. Thus far all these efforts have failed and each man is going it alone. After the primary and there are but two candidates for mayor and eight for commissioner, conditions may change and it will not be unreasonable to expect that there will be some combinations, for at that time such alignments will not be fraught with the danger that would be true now.

The Springfield Way.

William J. Butler, one of the legislative representatives from this district, is not satisfied with the office he is now holding but is seeking also to be elected a commissioner in Springfield. He believes that he has the time and talents which will make it possible for him to discharge the duties of both offices to the satisfaction of the people. He is waging quite an active campaign in his fight for commissionership, and has promised to make sensational exposures of rotten conditions in the Springfield government in an address he will make next Monday night at the Sangamon county court house. Mr. Butler's statements are somewhat veiled as to whom he is attacking, but there is a suggestion that he believes some one is guilty of very gross extravagance in the management of one of the city departments. Witness this paragraph from Butler's advertisement of his Monday night's meeting:

"Come to the Court House Monday evening at 8 o'clock and observe the interesting surgical process of removing the pretentious pecks from the backs of a coterie of incompetents, freaks, and pretenders."

And this is only one of the pointed paragraphs which appear under the following in big head lines: "Municipal Scandal, How This Community is Being Duped By the Cunning Operations of Plausible Political Characters Who Pose as Public Benefactors."

Sullivan Wars on Harrison.

The political contest for the mayoralty of Chicago is being waged fast and furiously. Roger Sullivan has added interest to the contest by his open advocacy of the candidacy of Robert M. Sweitzer against Mayor Carter H. Harrison. Mr. Sullivan has just addressed a letter to all of the Chicago voters who supported him in his contest for the senatorship last fall, in which he asks their support for Sweitzer. Sullivan's letter does not mention Mayor Harrison but in unmeasured terms he denounces the administration and says that for progress and economy and better living conditions in Chicago, that a change is necessary. Judge Harry Olson is the fusion candidate, while William Hale Thompson, a Republican, is making an active campaign. Thompson is charged with having a too intimate friendship with former Senator William Lorimer.

Many Women, Many Minds.

There is a general feeling now that there will not be as much activity among women voters at the coming primary as was originally anticipated. There are, according to the poll books, more than 4,000 women in Jacksonville who have the right to vote, and if a great majority of them cared to exercise this privilege, upon their action the result would undoubtedly be based.

Indications recently have been that the effort to center the support of the women for some certain list of candidates has failed. This to the average politician is not at all a surprising condition, for while it is an easy matter to "line the women up" on any moral question, when it comes to a matter of candidates it is a natural thing that their views should vary just as largely as the views of the male voters. So it happens that the indications are that when the ballots are counted on March 9th the vote of the women will be scattered just as indiscriminately as those of other citizens.

Various predictions are made as to the number of women who will vote, and as the days pass by the guesses are continually smaller, for thus far the larger body of women voters have manifested but little interest in the outcome. However, it is true that there may not be a real apathy and when election day comes the women may turn out at the polls in surprising numbers. Party workers, though, do not believe this will happen, for they argue unless old rules are violated that there will not be a large outpouring of women voters unless there is a definite organization to get out such a vote. It is believed that the organized effort which was started some weeks ago has not met with the anticipated interest or success, and that the women, divided in their opinions and preferences, will not concern themselves with any distinct movement but when they vote will act in large measure just as their husbands and brothers are doing, in the expression of individual preferences.

Central West the Bright Spot.

Hale Holden, president of the Burlington Railroad system, is optimistic of the future after completing a swing through the states served by his railroad. Mr. Holden said: "Business in the west is showing an improvement over that of the corresponding period of last year. The movement of foodstuffs to Europe has brought great sums of money into the agricultural districts where it is being distributed among a large number of people. There has been an abundance of snow through the wheat belt, and when it melts it should leave the ground in perfect condition for the growing crops. The Burlington is now working a large force of men on its new Guernsey line in Wyoming and hopes to get started shortly on its Chalco line, west of Omaha. While people in other sections are feeling much more optimistic than they did a few months ago, the central west is the bright spot and indications are that it will continue to grow brighter."

Faults May Become Virtues.

The late Robert J. Burdette was a man of some faults and many virtues. With a rare vocabulary and a silver tongue he preached many sermons in language so unusual that the thoughts have lived on although he is gone. Talking about "Making the best from the worst," he said:

"Because I am born into a world of many imperfections and daily temptations; because I have many faults already and am liable to acquire others, I resolve that I will make my faults my virtues."

"I will fear to do wrong because of the misery I might cause myself and bring upon others; I will fear to go wrong, ever so little a way, lest I might lose myself and those who trust me as a guide."

"So I will make my pride, my hates, my fears, my cruelties, my temptations--all my faults and evil propensities, 'captives of my bow and spear,' captured in fair, honorable, openly declared war and straight-forward battle. And I will compel them to bow down to me and to serve me, even as conquerors in all ages have made life-slaves of their captives. Thus will I strive to make it come true in my life that 'best men are molded out of faults.'"

THIRTEEN FILE PETITIONS.

When the city clerk's office closed Saturday thirteen candidates had filed the petitions which will make certain that their names will be on the ballots in the coming election. A notice has just been received from J. L. Pickering, collector of revenue for this district, setting forth the ruling of the department that a revenue stamp is not necessary on petitions. All petitions thus far filed have had a revenue stamp attached, but the stamps will not be demanded for future filing. Chief of Police Davis, who is a candidate for commissioner, was the thirteenth candidate to file the petition and it occurred to him shortly afterward that Saturday was the thirteenth, but Chief Davis is not at all superstitious and isn't feeling at all uneasy about the number or the date.

THE PEACE FROM HEAVEN.

The following lines were written some years ago by Mrs. Ida Scott Taylor McKinney, formerly of this city and now of Los Angeles, to an invalid friend. They were never before published and are certainly lines of deep meaning:

When with unrest our souls have fought,
And longed to find repose
What wondrous peace is in the thought
That God, our Father knows,
And that He bears with us the pain
And feels each grief and loss
He gives us strength for stress and strain
And lifts our heavy cross.

Our Father knows, The Hand Divine
That welds the chattering rind
Is leading us by some sweet sign
Up to the gates of God,
And whether through a thorny way,
Or where the lily grows,
We shall be kept by night and day,
Because our Father knows.

Our Father knows and so the hours,
If weary ones or bright,
Are rainbow-tinted as the flowers
And filled with calm delight;
We lean on Him and wait His will,
And sweet submission grows
Within our hearts, through good or ill,
Because our Father knows.

DANIEL FROHMAN Presents America's Most Famous Film Actress

MARY PICKFORD

In the Famous Tale of a Woman's Heroism

"Tess of the Storm Country"

By Grace Miller White

IN FIVE REELS OF MOTION PICTURES

"Tess of the Storm Country," the drama of a woman's unconquerable faith, written by a woman who knows her sex, will appeal to the entire feminine population of the world--and the other half. Tess, with her quaint philosophy of life, at once humorous and pathetic, is one of the most powerful characterizations ever conceived. Tess is an elemental type of womanhood, a primitive heart struggling with modern conditions and the delicate tortures of civilization. Mary Pickford as "Tess," the ragged little "squatter" girl, dirty but beautiful, rude, willful, saucy, but noble and self-sacrificing, renders a portrayal of inexhaustible fascination. A dramatic triumph greater than any that has yet distinguished Mary Pickford's phenomenal career.

A number of thrills, mingled with the sweetest of human traits--compassion. This picture is one of the big treats of the season.

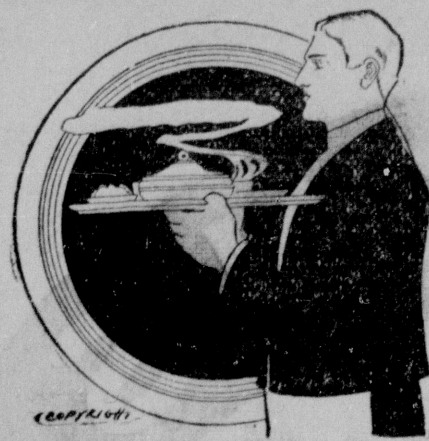

Also Earl Metcalf in A SOLDIER OF PEACE--Lubin two-act drama.

THE RICHEST GIRL IN THE WORLD--Selig drama.

THE REFORMATION OF HAM--Kalem comedy.

HOG FEEDERS

We find after several tests, that 1-3 alfalfa chopped up and mixed with 2-3 shelled corn while corn is hot, after taking it out of our Grain Softener, and letting stand 2 or 3 hours in separate tank with cover over it, makes a good hog feed. We add 1-2 gallon of soda to each 15 bushels corn we cook and this helps to keep hogs healthy.

Cob meal cooked and mixed with alfalfa or clover the same way makes a good feed for milk cows. Silage will also make a good mixture, but chopped shock corn answers nicely. If it is very hot when mixed, with plenty of water in feed.

The Amish people mix their feed at 4 o'clock each morning to feed at sun-up, they put the feeders in their barns on cement floors, and make a flue of double tile, 12 in. and 8 in. with cement between them, to pass through loft. This makes a good room in the barn to mend harness, etc.

Do not feed shelled corn alone to anything. It is too rich when cooked in my cookers, too much digestible protein and oil in it. To anyone who feeds cattle we will ship one on 30 days trial, so it will not cost you a cent to test it and all cattle feeders will find it saves them 1-2 their feed, and hold the gain on hogs commonly obtained with the syrup and oil drawn off the corn made into a slop.

CHAS. WOOD, R. F. D. No. 6

P. S.—This mixture for cattle makes the best horse feed I ever saw fed. The Dutch feed it to all their horses. Try letting it steep in boiling hot water on back of your cook stove for one hour but do not let it get hot enough so you can smell it cooking, and it will then lack almost 25 per cent of being the same as my feed.

Test Your Farm Seeds

The great importance of planting seed of proven germination is universally admitted.

With the strong European demand for farm products and the promise of high prices, it is more important than ever before that our farm lands be planted with seeds that will grow.

The testing of farm seeds is not a complicated procedure; on the contrary, satisfactory tests can be made by simple means. The expense and time involved is thoroughly justified by the results to be gained. Testing can easily be done in the home or school.

We have for distribution blotter-testers for oats and small seeds and rag-doll corn-testers—just to demonstrate how simply, easily and cheaply seed germination can be tested, and to prove there is little excuse for planting seed which will not sprout, as is too often done.

We will be glad to furnish, free, as long as our supply lasts, sample testers to the farmers, teachers, farm girls and farm boys of this community who will call for them.

The Rev. E. G. Prewitt, pastor of the Christian church at Winchester, has definitely decided to quit his charge at the end of the year and will leave with his family for Missouri the first of March. Rev. Mr. Prewitt broached the subject to his congregation last Sunday. The resignation was not accepted but the Missouri congregation did not seem inclined to withdraw their call and the Winchester pastor will leave after a year of efficient work. Himself, wife and daughter have formed many friends and their departure will call forth genuine regret.

FAREWELL PARTY.

More than one hundred persons crowded the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scott, who are leaving the Durbin neighborhood for a new home in Kansas, on Wednesday evening to give them a "send-off" and assure them of good wishes everyone had for them.

Singing, speeches, the reading of an original poem, with plenty of good things to eat made the time seem all too short, and it was near midnight when the last one with tears said "Good-bye; God bless you." The family left Saturday for Kansas City and from there will proceed to their new farm home near Winfield, Kas.

Billy Sunday The Man and His Work

Writing in the Congressional and Christian Herald, Roife Col- leigh gives a frank view of the base- ball evangelist in part as follows:

In order to approach the matter fairly we need to throw aside most of the stuff that has been printed about Billy Sunday. Probably there is no man in America, not even the political leaders, that has been lied about as much as Billy Sunday. Everything that he says and does is regarded as sensational by the newspapers, and the way the facts are distorted, exaggerated and entirely misrepresented is amazing. Much laudatory exaggeration has come from over-zealous friends who are often blind to his faults.

William Ashley Sunday is fifty-one years old. He was born near Ames, Ia., a few months after his father died in the Civil War. He says: "I was a Rube of the Rubes; a hayseed of the hayseeds. I have greased my hair with goosegrease. I have blacked my boots with stove blacking. I have wiped my old pro- poses on a gunnysack towel. I have eaten with my knife. I have drank coffee out of my saucer. I have said 'done it,' when I should have said 'did it,' 'come' when I should have said 'came,' 'seen' when I should have said 'saw.' I am a gradu- ate from the university of poverty and hard knocks, and I have taken post-graduate courses. My auto- biography could be summed up in one line from Gray's Elegy—The short and simple annals of the poor."

His education carried him through preparation for college. He took up baseball as a profession and on the Chicago White Sox achieved a national reputation as the fastest base runner in the country. He finally commanded a salary of $4,000 a year on the diamond. Apparently he was much like the average base- ball players of his time, who were a rough lot on the whole, but it doesn't appear that Billy Sunday was ever given to dissipation. He was converted in the Pacific Gar- den Mission in Chicago in the early '80's. He kept on playing ball and about this time took special courses in Northwestern University, Evans- ton, while coaching students during the winter months. He applied him- self zealously to mission and church work and united with the Jefferson Park Presbyterian church, Chicago, being subsequently one of its eld- ers. He married Miss Helen A. Thompson in Chicago in 1888 while a member of the Pittsburgh base- ball club. Desiring to devote his life to religious work, he accepted the first opening, which was as as- sistant secretary of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. There he began his pub- lic speaking. It was crude and stumbling at the start, with little promise of future success except in his tremendous earnestness. He gave up a big salary for a very small one.

His first efforts in the wilder field of evangelism were with Dr. J. Wil- bur Chapman. After three years he began his independent work in 1896. Since then his record has been one of constantly increasing success. Mr. Sunday was ordained in the ministry April 15, 1903 by the presbytery of Chicago in Jef- ferson Park church. Dr. Chapman preaching the ordination sermon. The honorary degree by Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him in 1912 by Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. The D. D. doesn't stick, and the Rev. is seldom attach- ed to his name. Everybody calls him Billy Sunday and that seems to be just what he wants.

The fact is that during the last score of years he has preached prac- tically as he is preaching now, and wherever he goes great throngs overflow the meetings and hundreds of thousands of men, women and children have resolved to live a better life because of his preaching. Thousands have backslidden, other thousands never recorded as Sun- day converts, it is fair to suppose, have turned from sin to righteousness under his influence. Church- men and ministers who were delinquent in their religious duties have become efficient Christian workers. Towns and cities have swept away corrupt politics, saloons, evil resorts and have entered into the enjoyment of a larger degree of civic righteousness following Billy Sunday campaigns. Some of these towns and cities have slumped back as individuals have backslid- den, but I have been pleased to learn that there are many cities today in which Sunday campaigns have been held which are better in many ways, even after a decade or more, than they were before Mr. Sunday went there. He expressed to me his satisfaction in an investi- gation recently made by the Chi- cago Tribune in eight Western cit- ies where his campaigns have been held during the past dozen years. Not all the evidence, as presented by the rank and file, by ministers and judges, doctors, lawyers, edi- tors and business men, is that much of permanent good remains today in the churches and in the civic and political life of those cities which is directly traceable to the Sunday campaigns. The cities investigated were: Dixon and Princeton, Ill.; South Bend, Ind.; Burlington and Fairfield, Ia.; Wichita, Kan.; Steub- enville, O.; and Pittsburgh, Pa.

One of the most convincing argu- ments in favor of Billy Sunday is the violent opposition and vicious attacks against him which come from the liquor interests and those interested in commercialized vice. Since the campaign in Philadelphia was fairly under way Mr. Sunday's secretaries have received almost daily anonymous threats against Mr. Sunday's life and warnings to get out of town. These are clearly from those interested in the commercial side of the underworld or the liquor interests, which are hard hit by the evangelist.

One of the passions of his life is to smash the liquor business. A second is to awaken the dormant churches and to arouse ministers and laymen to live clean, Christian lives and to give their best efforts to Christian service. But his great passion is to reach and save those who are in sin, seeking all classes and especially down to the very lowest.

In sizing up Billy Sunday and his work we cannot leave out "Ma" Sunday, for she is an essential and next to Mr. Sunday himself the most important personality connect- ed with the organization.

The great spectacular campaign in the tabernacle can hardly fail to impress one with the fact that hun- dreds of thousands of people, good, bad and indifferent, of all ages, both sexes and representing every class from the highest to the lowest have their minds fixed for a while upon the great fundamental facts of re- ligion and morality. Undoubtedly thousands of lives are being changed for the better as a result. No one can deny that good is being done; on one can tell how much good. Undoubtedly some harmful effects accompany the good; undoubtedly the campaign is forcing upon the churches a problem which it will be difficult for some of them to han- dle. In other cities most churches find their work easier after the campaign.

Billy Sunday's critics sometimes score by contrasting him with his Master. He has grave faults. He is intolerant, his language is often vio- lent, impatient and unkind. He is a fighter of the type that asks and gives no quarter. I saw and heard him say things that seemed to me ridiculous and I disapprove of many things that I have reason to be- lieve he has said and done. I could make out a pretty strong case against him on the facts that I have at my command. But after we have said all that, we have before us a preacher whom I believe to be the honest and earnest to the limit of the sacrificial, wearing his life out in work that he believes is "do- ing just as the Lord Jesus Christ wants" him "to do it." These last are his own words to me. However, much man may be troubled by his faults, I believe that God is using him to accomplish results of great magnitude in the cause of righteous- ness.

While he is reaching the man at the bottom, people of every class recognize the application of the same truth to their own lives and so he gets them all. In a select audi- ence he has proved that he can divest his speech of all slang and command as perfect English as any of his critics.

Some who condemn Billy Sunday say that he is working on a cash basis and point to the big free-will offerings which are his only com- pensation in these campaigns, but which run into many thousands of dollars a year.

If Billy Sunday is mercenary, why does he scorn the honorable plat- form of the Chautauqua circuit when offered a princely salary by the sea- son? Why does he choose to work harder than any man who has ever had record has ever worked as an evangelist, wearing life out and sure- ly shortening his days?

No hint of suspicion has ever appeared against his honesty or in- tegrity of character or the purity of his personal life.

Many are troubled about his the- ology. The most unfavorable inter- pretation of Billy Sunday's "the- ology" places him in company with men whom the Christian Church holds in reverent respect and whose views still largely prevail in the Church. Mr. Sunday himself de- clares that he knows no more about theology "than a jack rabbit knows about ping-pong or golf," and urges all Christians to quit quibbling over non-essentials and unite in Chris- tian service on the great fundamen- tal truths. I am told by men in churches that have been in his campaigns that most of his converts work out their theology in the church of their choice, to which they quickly turn from the "saw- dust trail."

The man who is afraid to hear the truth about himself, his sins and his duty should beware of Billy Sunday. The man who is courageous on that score should give him a hearing, as most of those who con- demn him have done. I failed to find in Philadelphia any one who had actually heard Billy Sunday who was not on his side. It is a steady- ly increasing army that comes to scoff but remains to pray with and for Billy Sunday.

After talking with many men of many types and classes in Phila- delphia I came to this conclusion: The impression left by Billy Sunday is not that of a perspiring actor hurling slang and anathemas, but of a passionate prophet wielding the sword of the spirit. The slang and the startling platform manners are forgotten; the moral and spiritual message, shot straight, strikes home.

THE OLD BOOK SHOP

I dig around in dusty nooks—it's less a habit than a vice—and ponder over ancient books I'd like to own—but lack the price. The shop is dark, and cobwebs hang down from the ceiling and the shelves; and every day the same old gang drift in there to refresh themselves. The same old fans in rusty black, with old time lids upon their domes; the workday world may jump the track—they'd care not, if they have their tomes. The same old sports with misty eyes come in to paw the vol- umes old; they paw them, but none ever buys, for book fans seldom have the go'd. The owner, in his rusty black, the most impractical of men, puts time worn volumes on a rack, then sighs, and takes them down again. In this old shop trade's always slack, for who would buy such junk and trash? And everything is rusty black, and no one cares a cent for cash. The owner and the ancient fans, who chortle o'er some printed treat, don't understand our modern plans, which rest upon a balance sheet. They do not comprehend the hosts who wear away their lives for gold, they're living always with the ghosts of all the mighty men of old. If you should seek the old book shack, to spend a roll of money there, the old man in rusty black, will fume with anger and despair!

RAILROAD NOTES

Changes in Wabash Officialdom.

Important changes are scheduled for the next two weeks in Wabash officialdom. One of the first of the resignations is that of Ralph Bradley, the young operation, tonnage and general railroad expert who came from Harvard, Heidelberg and study of railroad conditions in Europe to enter Wabash service as a locomotive fireman and has worked his way to a place high in both responsibility and esteem on the Wabash system.

Mr. Bradley has resigned from his position as fuel purchasing agent and tonnage expert to enter the purchasing department of the Boston & Maine railroad with headquarters in Boston. As an attaché of the general manager's staff on the B. & M., his many friends look to see Mr. Bradley go far on that big and important passenger line. The new appointment is effective March 1.

Mr. Bradley will be succeeded by S. C. McCoy, formerly a newspaper man, who has been associated with the Wabash purchasing department for the past year and a half with headquarters in St. Louis. He will tend to the distribution and accounting end of the department. Mr. McCoy originates from Springfield where for some time he was employed on the Springfield Register. He later went to the Peoria Herald Transcript, and eventually drifted into railroad work. He is given high recommendations from general offices.

Another important change in official circles which persistent rumor in official circles has scheduled to take place on the first of next week is that of the resignation of F. E. Bolte, Wabash superintendent of transportation, and the appointment of Henry Elche, now Wabash freight agent in Chicago, to the place of transportation head.

Alton Wreck at Pekin.

A wreck of considerable proportion occurred on the Chicago & Alton between Henrietta and Charlot, near Thirtieth street, Pekin, Friday afternoon. The south bound passenger train, drawn by engine No. 556, and due in Pekin at 12:50, ran into a south bound freight. The engine plowed underneath a box car and set it on fire. The fire department was called probably half an hour after the accident and arrived to find the blazing car almost consumed by the flames. Fortunately no one was seriously injured, although it is stated that a number of the passengers were shaken up when the impact occurred. The long run and heavy load were trying on the fire team and the horses were well nigh winded by the time they reached the scene. The box car destroyed was one belonging to the Missouri Pacific railroad. It was so far gone when the department reached the scene that it could not be definitely discerned whether it had been loaded or empty.

Traffic on the line was blocked and it was necessary for the north bound passenger to make a detour over the Big Four to the Terminal depot and thence over the P. P. & U. to Peoria.

Engineer is Burned.

A tragedy was narrowly averted in Forrest early Friday morning, when the clothing of Engineer Matthews of the Wabash caught fire from his torch and he was saved from severe injury only through the quick actions of himself and Fireman Brocker, who rushed to his assistance with water from the tank.

Mr. Matthews was going over his engine in the freight terminal yards when the wind suddenly caught his torch flame and sent it sputtering into the oil of his jacket. The flame spread rapidly and the entire left arm and breast of the jacket were soon aflame. The engineer, nearly smothered by the blaze, fell to the ground, and succeeded in rolling out part of the fire and the fireman did the rest. He was given medical attention at once, and it was found that his injuries consisted of a severely burned arm and chest. No serious results are anticipated. Mr. Matthews is in the north end engine service.

Leaves Alton for Wabash.

Official announcement was made yesterday that J. L. Harris, the live stock and fuel agent for the Chicago and Alton will leave the service on Feb. 15, to take a similar position with the friends of Mr. Harris he could be induced to reconsider his resignation and remain with the Alton. The Wabash made him such a flattering salary offer that the Alton management could not see their way clear to equal it and he finally concluded to leave "The Only Way" and enter the new field. Mr. Harris has been with the Alton for six years and has made an enviable record as a traffic solicitor. He has a wide acquaintance with stock men and has always been a successful business getter. The Alton will find it difficult to find a worthy successor. The officials are now looking for a man to take charge of the vacant position and will announce the appointment in a few days.

Engine Buried Under Coal.

The southbound C. P. & St. L. passenger train was delayed several hours recently at Forest City. A northbound freight train while taking coal at the chutes south of Forest City met with a mishap and traffic along the line was delayed.

The dumping apparatus of the coal chute was not working properly and when the fireman attempted to shut off the supply and hoist the chute it refused to work that way but kept on letting the coal run down until the chute was empty. The engine was buried under an avalanche of coal and it became necessary to send for the section gang to dig it out.

The passenger train which had been detained at Manito, was ordered to proceed to Forest City and bring with them the section crew for clearing the track.

Car Off the Track.

The switching crew of the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis bumped a car of coal off the end of the track on the blind siding near the engine shed last Friday night, knocking out one corner of the shed and demolishing things generally.

The section men came to the rescue Saturday morning and with considerable difficulty the car was finally put back on the track and the damages were repaired.

Manchester Agent Resting.

F. C. Lakin, the efficient railroad agent at Manchester, is making arrangements to take a rest, and while off duty he will make quite a trip. He will go to Argansas and remain there for a week, and from there he will go to several places in Texas, thence to Oklahoma, and will visit with relatives in Kansas and Missouri. He expects to be gone about thirty days. The traveling auditor of the C. & A., C. S. Maslander, checked in N. T. Block of Springfield who will have charge while Mr. Lakin is away.

Other Notes of the Road.

Third Trick Operator Livesey of Concord and wife were shoppers in the city yesterday.

Engineer Burnett of the Burlington Route has returned to the pool service in Beardstown.

The Burlington in following out their late policy of retrenchment have laid off five cars in the pool service at Beardstown. This lays off about fifteen men.

Blueford Violet, Burlington roadmaster for the Beardstown division, was in Jacksonville on business a short time yesterday. He left here for Lowder, planning to catch No. 11 on the main to Beardstown.

NEW PUMP WILL BE INSTALLED THIS WEEK

Centrifugal Type to be Used at North Side Station—Purpose is to Increase Efficiency and Cut Costs.

O. E. Reed, expert electrician for Fairbanks, Morse & Co., who has been of considerable aid to the city commissioners during the past year in increasing the efficiency of the water and light departments, will be here Tuesday on work connected with the installation of a new pump at the north side pumping station. Mr. Reed drew the plan for a pump which will be installed in the square well at the station.

This well was recently concreted and now has an inside diameter of 34 inches. The excavation is 46 feet deep and at the bottom a pipe extends to a further depth of 63 feet. The centrifugal pump to be installed will cost about $225 as against $1,750, the cost of a pump of the type used in the other wells. It is the desire of Mr. Brennan to use the centrifugal pump because he believes that a greater flow of water can be secured and for the added reason that the cost of repairing the plunger pumps used in the other wells is very large. The gaskets and rubber fittings wear out every little while on the present pumps and it costs $18 or $20 to restore them. Other repairs have been found equally expensive.

The centrifugal pump operates on a different plan and for this reason the larger excavation was necessary. The concrete shaft 24 inches wide and 46 feet deep forms a sort of cistern from which the centrifugal pump will force the water. It has a capacity of 300 gallons a minute, and can thus deliver water more than twice as rapidly as the other pumps, although it does not have the same lifting power. This particular type of well, however, it is believed will be much more satisfactory and provide an increased supply at a less cost for operation.

BOY FINDS FUSE.
The mysterious explosion heard last Thursday in the neighborhood of Diamond Grove cemetery has not yet been solved. However, Orville Moss, son of W. H. Moss, residing in that locality, Friday afternoon found a piece of fuse about three feet in length. This was picked up just west of the turn at Diamond Grove on the south side of the wagon track. The purpose of the blast or who set it off has not yet been determined.

O. E. Ryan of Alexander was among the arrivals in the city yesterday.

The Burlington has started cutting expenses on account of the drop in coal consumption and freight business and has dropped the following from the pay roll: Two operators at Atwater, two at Franklin, two at Walshville, two at Waltonville, two at Cravat, and one at Hookdale. The first trick operator at Virden has also been dropped, the agent at that point will have to act as first trick operator in the future.

Saturday was pay day on the Alton. The local employees of the road were all on hand to receive their checks. Due to the recent change in the crews and the time table a number of transfers in pay stations had to be made. Conductor Charles Burdick of 32 and 33 who formerly drew his check in Bloomington now receives his money in Roadhouse. Flagman A. Mink on the same trains with Burdick, formerly worked out of Chicago, and has not yet received his semi-monthly check.

PEORIA AMONG CITIES BENEFITTING FROM SURVEY
The talk of the Springfield survey investigator tomorrow evening at Central Christian church, brings to mind the municipal survey of Peoria conducted in the autumn of 1913, under the Russell Sage Foundation, the same agency having the Springfield work in charge. Much vice and pauperism was traced directly to the saloon and this of course was decidedly displeasing to the strong liquor interests there. Last fall the saloons were closed in Peoria on election day, for the first time in the history of the city. City and county government will be the theme of Dr. Allen Monday night in an address under auspices of the Woman's club, to which all citizens are invited.

PHI ALPHA SOCIETY PREPARES FOR DEBATE
Phi Alpha society of Illinois college have made selection of their preliminary debaters and Friday, Feb. 27, will select the three who will meet Sigma Pi society in joint debate. So many came out this year for the try-out, that the preliminary team was chosen to consist of eight instead of six, the usual number. The eight thus chosen at a regular meeting of Phi Alpha Friday night are R. H. Bracewell, president of the society; Robert A. Butcher, Thomas Mangner, Paul Watkins, Robert Nesmith, John Irwin, Ray Berry and Ernest Rutherford. Bracewell and Mangner have had considerable experience in the society and Nesmith was last year a member of the debating team at the Jacksonville high school.

LAWYER FROM WEST TO LOCATE IN THE CITY
Paul Samuels arrived in the city Friday from Montana and expects to locate here for the practice of law. Mr. Samuels Saturday was considering an office in the Ayers bank building. For several years he has been practicing at Three Forks, Mont., where he has been successful. A former resident of Jacksonville, he is the son of H. B. Samuels, at one time buyer for the Jacksonville State hospital.

Every Possible Convenience

THE 1915 Overland has every modern driving convenience.

The above illustration shows the simplicity, compactness and completeness of all Overland controls and instruments. Everything is within sight and within natural reach.

The complete set of electrical control buttons, is located on the steering column. With just a slight pressure of your finger you start the car, operate the electric head, side, tail and dash lights and sound the electrical signal.

Here also is the high tension magneto button and a patented device for locking all switches, in or out, so that no one can tamper with the controls.

Now note that you do not have to stretch out or bend down, as you do on other cars. Every switch is right at your hand.

On the cowl dash board are four instruments.

A high grade electrically lighted magnetic speedometer.

An ammeter which shows whether current is flowing or whether the generator is actually engaged in charging the batteries. Many cars are not equipped with ammeters which means the owner must guess at or take a chance on the condition of his batteries.

The third instrument is the sight feed of the oiling system. This sight feed contains a small indicator which revolves, when the motor is in operation, splashing the oil against the glass so that it can be plainly seen at all times.

The fourth instrument is a priming plug, which adjusts the gasoline mixture.

So you see in every refinement as well as in superb appearance, remarkable performance and unusual comfort the Overland ranks with the highest priced cars in the world.

Back of each Overland is one of the largest and strongest organizations in the world.

Overland service is international. It stretches around the globe. We have millions of dollars invested in service alone which assures every Overland owner of prompt, efficient and economical attention.

Celebrate Valentine Wedding of 50 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Adams.
This picture was taken some twenty-five years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams, of 1342 South Main street, will today celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. The celebration of the event will be observed quietly on account of the fact that Mrs. Adams is ill. She has been ill for the past three weeks. Mr. Adams has also been kept at home for about eight weeks on account of blood poisoning in his right foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams were married February 14, 1865 at the home of the bride's father, Mr. George Simpkins, about eight miles southeast of Jacksonville, with the Rev. D. D. Holmes, pastor of the Diamond Grove Baptist church, officiating.

Mr. Adams is the son of John Quincy Adams and was born near Urbana, Ohio, seventy three years ago. His mother died in 1884 and his father two weeks before he was born. Mr. Adams farmed for some years southeast of Jacksonville and in 1883 moved to this city. In 1892 he started in the business of wire fence building and has been steadily at that trade ever since.

He is an expert in this line of work. Mrs. Adams was formerly Miss Frances Simpkins, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Simpkins. She was born seventy three years ago near Scarborough, England, and came to this country with her father at the age of nine years. Her mother died in England. Mrs. Adams has two brothers living in this vicinity, Thomas in Buckhorn neighborhood and George, who resides southeast of the city.

Of the number who attended the marriage ceremony at the Simpkins' home fifty years ago, but four besides the principals are now living. These are: Miss Emma Holmes, residing southeast of the city; William Gilmore of Roodhouse; Mrs. S. T. Gorman of East Michigan avenue, formerly Miss Rebecca Delaney; and William Delaney, now living on Edgemoor road.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams are among the oldest residents of this county and are well known and have a large circle of friends who will wish them well and congratulate them upon their anniversary today.

THREE NEW STATES PROPOSED
Washington, Feb. 13.—The movement in Texas to trisect that state into North, South and West Texas and to divide California into two separate state governments is the principal topic in political circles at the capital. If carried out, there would be six additional United States Senators, quite enough under close circumstances to swing the balance of power.

The Texas legislature has under consideration a joint resolution for an amendment to the State constitution to divide Texas into three states. North Texas would have Palestine for its capital. West Texas would have Abilene for the seat of government and South Texas would retain the present capital of Austin. The resolution is bound to stir up big interest in political circles. It is said among political leaders that the liquor question agitation has had a large part in the divergence between the sections of Texas. There is also a feeling in that State that the vast state was not sufficiently represented at Washington.

The California movement was begun by the People's Association of that state, which has circulated a petition. Russell L. Dunn, a civil engineer and mining man, is heading the petition work. "The movement is purely a political one," he says. "The main purpose is to gain an additional state for the West, and so give the West two additional senators and its people added prestige in the affairs of the nation. The petitioners seek to place an amendment on the ballot in next year's election, for a referendum vote. The petitioners seek to separate into a new state the eight counties in the lower part of the state, below the Tehachapi river.

LORIMER'S PARTNER ARGUES TO QUASH.
Chicago, Feb. 13.—Arguments are set for today on the motion of attorneys for Charles B. Munday, former partner of William Lorimer in the banking enterprises which crashed last June, to quash the indictments brought against Munday in connection with the affairs of the banks. When the cases against Lorimer, Munday and twelve other bank officials was called for trial on Feb. 11, postponement was granted until April 7th. Munday, who seeks to have the indictment against him quashed, is charged with conspiracy, embezzlement and larceny. He was the vice-president of the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank, of which former U. S. Senator William Lorimer was president when the crash came.

CAN THEY LAWFULLY WORK MORE THAN 10 HOURS?
Regarding the duties of judges and clerks at the polls, a gentleman has suggested the possibility of the ten hour law being violated. The state law says that women must not work more than ten hours a day but that amount of time will not permit them to do their work as judges and clerks of election. A question here for the lawyers to decide.

WILL REMOVE FROM WOODSON.
F. A. Fitzsimmons of Woodson precinct is planning to dispose of his farm property and take up his residence in Jacksonville. He will hold a public sale at his farm near Woodson, Thursday, Feb. 25.

GERMANY CHARGES BRITISH WITH ARMING MERCHANTMEN

In Another Warning to Neutral Vessels Says British Have All the Ports of England War Ports.

The Hague, via London, Feb. 13.—(9:55 p. m.)—The German legation has again warned neutral vessels against entering the war area around the British Isles as defined by the German admiralty and to the original note adds the following:

"Since Germany, following the example of Great Britain, declared as a war zone on and after Feb. 18th, English and Irish waters, the British have declared all the ports of England war ports and have justified the use of neutral flags on merchant vessels.

"Moreover, according to a reliable source, a great number of British merchantmen have been armed in order to destroy German submarines by shells or by ramming them. Thereby these ships lose their character as merchant ships and become war vessels.

"Germany therefore is again obliged urgently to warn all neutral ships against entering English coast waters after Feb. 18th, as from that date the German admiralty will prosecute the war with all means at its disposal against British war ports and British armed merchant ships.

"Neutral vessels which are then still within the war zone will run the same risks as if they pursued a course through sea battles between England and Germany of which the date and place could not have been made known and will bring risks upon themselves for which Germany cannot take the responsibility.

"The route around the north of Scotland, owing to the depth of the waters cannot be endangered by mines. There as well as in the waters of the North Sea, with the exception of British waters and German Bay, neutral shipping will not be endangered by the measures the German admiralty is adopting."

One effect of the European war is the price of carbolic acid. It is a product of coal tar and made mostly in Germany and is one of the things we must learn to make in our own land.

else seemed to be of any importance as they apparently influenced all his acts and thoughts. In the six years study of the case I did not notice any change in the delusions, nor any emotional disturbance except those of anger and vexation, such as might be found in a normal man.

I feel that this patient shows manifest traits of pure paranoia, such as slow onset, systematized delusions, clearness of thought, sound judgment in matters of pertaining to his delusions, the absence of hallucinations, depression and maniacal symptoms, as well as the vivid impression left by an unjust punishment.

If, however, as some authors claim, the systematized delusions of the true, paranoid are taken as "faulty judgment" and this is considered a sign of deterioration, then any diagnosis of true paranoia would be defective, and this patient should be classified as a paranoid form of dementia precox.

SOWING CLOVER.

That clover is good for the land is a fact too well demonstrated to merit any mention but there are various ways of getting it started. For years it was the custom to sow it on wheat ground and let it take its chances. Then many took to sowing it with oats so as to get the seed covered with dirt. Recently some sowed clover on wheat and didn't harrow it in and now they say it is swelling and may possibly sprout and in that case it would be lost as cold weather would surely kill the tender shoots.

CASE OF PARANOIA IS FULLY DESCRIBED

EXPLAINS ACTIONS OF MAN LONG PATIENT HERE.

"Mac" Had Constructed a Religion in Which he Appointed Himself God—Wall Charts Gave Details of Queer Belief—Twelve Local Disciples.

Many Jacksonville citizens have pleasant recollections of "Mac," a patient at Jacksonville State Hospital who with silk hat and cane was a familiar figure on the streets. His was not a violent type of insanity and the case is fully described as paranoia in an article recently written by Dr. Leonard. Accompanying the article are various pictures of the "calendars" with which "Mac" used to favor his friends.

In the older text-books and in other medical literature, cases were described as paranoia which we now know were not a pure paranoia. When this term "paranoia" was first introduced great many cases were included under it. Recent studies have shown they should have been classified under another head, being undoubtedly the paranoid states of other psychoses.

Krapelin has defined paranoia as "a condition in which we find a gradual development and systematization of delusions with full preservation of clearness, and generally without hallucinations, a condition which is moreover chronic, in which, however, other mental symptoms or dementia do not occur."

Tanzi says that: "The paranoiac delusion is not a symptom but it is a mode of thought, an opinion which has its roots in a special structure of the mind, in the paranoiac constitution."

If one has an opportunity to make a lengthy study of a case of paranoia he will find that the chief emotions in a true paranoiac are elementary, such as suspicion, ambition, pride and fear.

During my services of over seven years in a State hospital I met only one case which I would classify as "true paranoia." This patient was a man of about 70 years of age, fairly well-educated, of medium height, and with a pleasant countenance. When he came under my care he had been an inmate of the hospital for quite a time, and already had his system of delusions, but I cannot say how long it had taken him to construct it. He was under my charge for about six years, when he died suddenly from a cerebral hemorrhage. During that period of time I observed him carefully and could detect no material change in his delusions.

Believing himself to be "the only True and Living God," he had formulated a system of religion consistent with his belief. He divided the Universe into a certain number of, what he called "sounds" (worlds) the one in which we were living he called the first sound. George Washington was his Invisible God, and the Supreme Ruler of the Invisible World. The Invisible World was in charge of twelve men, and these twelve men were termed "The Council." George Washington being at the head of the council, and some of its members: Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin and James A. Garfield.

The patient was a disbeliever in Heaven or Hell. He claimed that when a person died, he would go to a certain "sound" to await trial by the Great Council. After his trial a verdict would be rendered, and he would be sent to a certain "sound" to do the work allotted him. This verdict would be either in the form of an award or a punishment, according to the person's life on earth.

The patient also chose twelve disciples from among the prominent people in town; to these he would give a number and a chart. A picture of each of these disciples was placed in a large chart, his own picture being in the center, which was hung in his room.

He formed his own calendar, February being the first month, because it was the month of George Washington's birth. He claimed that we were now living in the first "sound" but the sixteenth year. Of his calendar he would have predictions of snow, rain, smoke, wind, and earthquakes, and would also place his seal on it; adding the names or initials of George Washington, Lincoln, Franklin and Garfield at regular intervals. Saturday was his Sunday.

He had a single room, and a number of jars filled with earth stood on his dresser—these he called batteries. From these jars cords were strung to the center of ceiling, and from this point to all parts of the room, one main string was carried to the head of the bed in imitation of a receiving instrument; on this he claimed to receive messages at night. The whole system of cords much resembled a spider's web. On the dresser there was another string to which was attached a piece of metal, somewhat similar to a telegrapher's key, which the patient would work as a telegrapher does. If a thunder-storm should occur during the night, the patient would claim the following day that he had received a message in the thunder, and that all the water and air would be withdrawn from the earth in a few days.

He arose early in the morning and could be seen standing at his dresser receiving messages and instructions for that day, as well as prediction of certain events; these he would write down carefully. He was constantly predicting cyclones, earthquakes and the death of prominent people, and when any disaster did occur, he would call attention to the fact that he had warned the people of what was coming.

The walls of his room were completely covered with charts and calendars of his own design; these were somewhat similar, except that the charts were more elaborate and highly-colored. He also had a large picture of George Washington and one of Abraham Lincoln.

As a means of protection to his followers he would give them each a number; this was supposed to act as sort of a charm and protect them from all harm. He never forgot these numbers, and could connect them with the right person years after he had bestowed it on them. Women were not given numbers; he made two exceptions to this rule.

If one of his "followers" were about to start on a journey, the patient would give him an elaborate paper chart. He would tell the man not to allow the chart to leave his person; and he would be protected from all harm or accident.

The patient faithfully kept a diary, in which he would carefully note the instructions he received each morning. At night he would write down just how these instructions had been carried out. He was also exceedingly well versed in scripture, and was able to quote correctly a vast number of verses. He always said grace at meals.

There was no sign of mental confusion in his system. For nearly the most rigid questioning he could explain his delusions lucidly, and he never varied. Neither did his delusions mar his judgment, for he had a good general knowledge, and kept in touch with the current events of the day. When told, however, that he was not "The Only True and Living God," or if his room was disturbed, he would react readily, and become incensed, threaten to remove all the air and water from the earth, and would condemn the person who had offended him.

In reading over the clinical histories of paranoiacs one finds that their similarity is very striking, and this leaves the impression that all paranoiacs possess a certain amount of knowledge of the psychology of primitive peoples and try to imitate them in their worship of idols and the sun, as well as in the use of symbols, signs and mysteries. My patient is an excellent example of this; for in his system of delusions it is exactly mythology, astrology, palmistry, crude Masonry, the old Jewish Sanhedrin, as well as many mysterious signs and symbols.

Instead of worshipping an idol, however, he worshipped George Washington, and set himself up as "The Only True and Living God." On his chart he drew a square and compass—which he called his seal—and wrote certain elementary numbers as 24, 48, etc., also predictions of rain, thunder and earthquakes.

He was inclined to be suspicious of a new doctor or attendant, and would request their removal if they offended him. If no attention was paid to his demand, he would threaten to have the highest official of the hospital removed. He would become angry whenever he saw the hospital officials riding in carriages, or when his wishes were crossed, or anything was changed or removed from his room. In this he showed the usual selfishness and solicitude for his own comfort which is characteristic of the paranoiac, and reveals its similarity to the primitive man, who would kill or destroy anything offending him.

Then, too, he was always and essentially a mystic. For he had his seal as well as his own mysterious flag. A small flag was hung in his room, and a very large one could be seen on the flag-staff of one of the prominent buildings in town. A further evidence of mysticism was his habit of feeling a person's pulse by placing his index finger in the center of the palm on some line triangle or square. This he claimed, imparted power, protection and preservation to the one he touched.

Because of his supposed position in the world it was very difficult to get him to take any medicine, as he would insist that he (God) could not be ill or die. And when the hospital was quarantined on account of an epidemic, the patient was very indignant that he, "The Only True and Living God" should be refused permission to leave the hospital grounds.

Like most paranoiacs this patient was very dignified, and by staunch adherence to his delusions, and living up to this own belief, won the respect of those with whom he came in contact. He was in fact, what might be called the "aristocrat" of the patients, and was quite an authority among them; for they had great confidence in him, and would delegate him to make small purchases for them.

He was a neat, good-tempered, harmless patient, and was allowed a great deal of freedom. He was very fond of children, buying toys and candy for them. He erased his own name from all his clothing, and marked them with the word "God." On Saturday (his Sabbath) he would put on a Prince Albert suit and silk hat, and with his cane in hand, take a walk to town. There were no hallucinations; his orientation, memory, retention, calculation and general knowledge were good for one of common school education. Aside from his delusions, his judgment and reasoning-power were not defective.

The patient's history elicits the fact of incarceration for a crime he claims he did not commit, and in formulating his system of delusions this injustice appears to have been always before him. This is shown by the large letter "M" placed repeatedly on his chart. According to the old English law this means a brand or stigma imposed on one convicted of manslaughter and admitted to the benefit of clergy.

When I first saw this patient he had already reached what might be termed "the transformation of the personality," and the psychosis had apparently become stationary. Every happenings of his life was made to focus on his delusions, nothing

Coming

Watch this space for announcement of their arrival. They are the REAL 1915 models that came out in 1915, NOT the kind that come out six months ahead of time and then have to be changed in order to bring them up with the procession after the big shows are over.

Oh, yes, they are automobiles, but THE IMPORTANT THING is that they are REO'S, built by the REO MOTOR CAR COMPANY of Lansing, Michigan, in the best equipped factory in the United States, under the direction of R. E. Olds, who builds them so good that the factory never has been able to supply the demand. Some people may doubt the latter part of that assertion, but, nevertheless, it is a fact. Since January first we have had a standing order for cars to be shipped and have just received word that our first carload will leave the factory within a few days, and we are promised another carload for March tenth, and another April first. If you intend buying a REO this year we will try to have it ready for you when you want it, but it will help us to make prompt deliveries to have your order early. NO DEPOSIT REQUIRED.

Our stock of accessories and supplies will be in about March first.

TURKEY TO PROTEST AGAINST SINKING OF STEAMER WASHINGTON

Vessel is Reported to Have Been Sunk by Russians While Carrying Red Cross Supplies.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—By wireless to Sayville, L. I.—Advice received here today from Constantinople say that the Turkish government will protest against the sinking by the Russians of the steamship Washington, while sailing under the American flag. The vessel is reported to have been sunk on Feb. 8, while engaged in carrying Red Cross supplies between Constantinople and Trebizond.

The Washington was owned by the Archipelago-American Steamship company, which controls a fleet of boats named after the American states and plying between Mediterranean ports. The Steamship Texas, which struck a mine and sank in the Gulf of Smyrna in May, 1912, during the Turko-Italian war, belonged to this steamship line.

The Archipelago-American Steamship company is owned in large part by naturalized American Greeks and is chartered under the Maine laws though no American registry has been granted to its vessels.

At the time of an anti-Greek boycott directed against the ships of this company some years ago however the line was authorized to fly the American flag by the American consul at Smyrna because the company was largely controlled by American interests.

EGGS NEXT FALL

If the farmer wishes to benefit by the high prices that eggs are certain to bring next fall and winter, he should begin to get ready for them at once, say the poultry specialists in the department. The way to have eggs late in the year is to hatch pullets early. It is the early hatches from which the early pullets are derived that are the largest money makers for the poultry producer. The early hatched cockerels can be marketed in almost any market in America when they attain a weight of three-fourths of a pound to a pound and a half each, which they should reach at about 6 to 10 weeks of age, respectively, at a greater profit to the producer than at any other time of their lives. The early hatched pullets, if properly grown, should begin to lay in the fall at the time when eggs are scarce and high in price.

A Few Facts to Remember.

Pullets must be well matured before they will lay many eggs.

Pullets that start to lay in the fall before cold weather sets in will, as a rule lay all winter.

It is the early hatched pullets that produce eggs in the fall and early winter, when prices are high. February, March and April are the months to do your hatching in order to secure early hatched pullets.

Yearling and 2-year-old hens do not lay many eggs in the fall, as they are molting at that time, and the feed they consume goes not only to keep up the energy and life of the birds but also to put on or grow a new coat of feathers.

In properly matured pullets all surplus energy beyond that needed to meet the requirements of the body is available for the production of eggs.

Write the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. for free bulletins on poultry management.

THE MADRIGAL CLUB AT CENTENARY.

The music at Centenary church Sunday night will be of unusual interest. The Madrigal club of the College of Music will have charge of the music for this service. In addition to leading the congregational singing the club will give as a special number, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Bargiel. This organization is composed of the best voices of the College of Music and is under the leadership of Director Henry V. Stearns. All friends are cordially invited to be present and enjoy the services.

SERMON LECTURE ON LINCOLN.

Rev. Walter E. Spoon will speak Sunday evening at the Northminster church on "Lincoln as a Man of Sorrow." If we know and understand Lincoln we will have the hand of God in his life. The speaker will liken him in some respects to the "Man of Many Sorrows." Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for what our Lord and Savior is to Divine history, Abraham Lincoln is the American history. One is the Savior of the world, and the other a Savior of a nation and a race. Lincoln is the most difficult character in all history to understand.

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N.J.

From Hanover, Penn.

HANOVER, PA.—"I was a very weak woman and suffered from bearing down pains and backache. I had been married over four years and had no children. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RICKBONE, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Dandruff Heads

Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

LAND O'NOD STORIES

SLINKER'S HUNTING

For nearly a mile Billy De By Bo Bum and Tinker Teedle Tee, the merry little elf, followed the tracks of Mr. Rabbit and Slinker the Weasel through the White Forest. Slinker had made up his evil little mind he wanted rabbit meat for supper, and Mr. Rabbit knew it, too, and was running away as fast as he could, but Slinker was not on his trail and Billy and Tinker were following to see what happened.

"Every dweller of the White Forest is afraid of Slinker," said Tinker Teedle Tee. "He is an outcast and hasn't a single friend among the Little People. They have good reason to fear him, for he is the most patient hunter in the big woods and the most cruel. There is only one idea in his wicked head, to kill and kill, and will until even his thirst for blood is satisfied. When once he starts out on a trail, he never gives up and it is this trait that makes him such a successful hunter."

"But I don't see how he can catch Mr. Rabbit," said Billy. "Surely Slinker, with his short little legs can't run as fast as Bunny."

"That's just what makes me mad," replied Tinker. "If only Mr. Rabbit wasn't such a coward he could get away every time. But Bunny knows what a patient fellow Slinker is, and that makes all the trouble. When he finds out the old villain is after him, he lays his ears back flat on his neck and lights out lickety split. If he would only keep going he would soon be out of danger, but after he has run a mile or two his courage all oozes away, leaving him shivering with fear. He is so scared he just squats down on the ground in a furry heap and stays there until Slinker sneaks up and grabs him by the throat."

"Couldn't he hide in a hole in the ground?" asked Billy. "That would be the worst thing he could do," replied Tinker. "Mr. Weasel is more at home in a hole than he is above ground. Cruel hunters often use a ferret, who is a first cousin of Slinker, to help them catch rabbits. They put the ferret in one door of the hole and a bag over the other door. Then when Bunny comes hopping out to escape the ferret, he jumps right smack into the bag. But if there only happens to be one door to the hole, Mr. Rabbit never comes out at all. So you see, hiding in a hole would be a pretty poor way to escape from Slinker."

Mr. Rabbit had run right around in a circle, and Billy and Tinker were now back at the spot they started from.

"Hello, what's this!" said Tinker a minute later, stopping so suddenly that Billy nearly jumped over him. "There's been high jinks here that's certain, but I can't quite figure it out."

For several minutes he stood on one leg, studying the ground, the weeny copper kettle that served him for a hat cocked over one ear giving him a most comical appearance.

"H'm, I'm afraid Slinker got more than he bargained for this time," said Tinker at last, scratching his chin with the toe of his pointed boot. "Why, what's happened?" asked Billy.

"See that shallow hollow in the snow? Well, that's where Mr. Rabbit sat down when he got too scared to run any farther. But Slinker didn't catch him, for there are Mr. Rabbit's tracks leading on through the woods. Here are Slinker's tracks and there—they aren't. They stop right short within a few feet of where Bunny sat. Now, you know a weasel can't vanish without leaving any tracks behind, but that's just exactly what he's done. What do you suppose has happened, Billy De By Bo Bum?"

"I'm sure I don't know," replied Billy. "Well, what do you make of that?" asked Tinker, pointing to Slinker's last track. Right over the tracks of the weasel were the marks of two large claws and the snow thereby was beaten down, showing there had been a struggle of some kind.

"What does it mean?" asked Billy. "It means," replied Tinker "that just as Slinker was about to pounce on Mr. Rabbit, Old Too Whoop the Owl dropped down on him like a lump of lead and carried him off. I'm afraid that's the last of Slinker, but it sure was lucky for Mr. Rabbit."

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

WHEAT COLLAPSES AS RESULT OF ARREST OF EXPORT SALES

Market Suffers Most Sensational Break Since the Beginning of the War—Close is Extremely Nervous at 5 Cents Lower.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Wheat collapsed in price today 9½¢ a bushel, the most sensational break since the beginning of the war. Almost complete arrest of export sales had much to do with forcing speculative holders to unload for a short time on a gigantic scale. Rallies followed but the market closed extremely nervous, 5½¢@5¼¢ lower than Thursday night. Other net losses were:
Corn—5¢ to ¼¢; oats, ¼¢@½¢ to 1¢ and provisions 10¢ to 20¢.

Throwing overboard of immense eastern lines of future deliveries said to be owned by related investors was apparently what made the wheat market storm swept in earnest.
Stop loss orders on the options credited to eastern account were not reached by a fall of 3½¢ that prices underwent during a rush of selling at the outset of the day. Recoveries, however, from the early weakness were not of sufficient energy to hinder a persistent recurrence of the tendency to drastic liquidation.
The ensuing smash, when it finally did come, seemed to overwhelm the pit and there was no breathing place before May had plunged to $1.50, a fall of 17¢ from the highest record war price $1.67 on Feb.
5th.

British cable dispatches had much influence toward emphasizing bearish sentiment regarding wheat.
This was particularly the case as to reports that greatly increased shipments from Argentina to Europe would be brought about by action of Premier Asquith concerning the release of vessels which would be available at Buenos Ayres. A reduction of Argentina ocean freight rates was taken as significant and so too was Argentina pressure to sell at decidedly lower prices. Like-hood of an important cut in the United States visible supply total on Monday appeared to have little or no contrary effect.

Depression of the corn market was due wholly to the weakness of wheat. Relatively corn showed notable strength. Rural offerings although slightly enlarged were not excessive and were readily absorbed.

Liberal shipping demand both domestic and foreign, helped to prevent any radical setback in oats.
The cash sales of oats here today were estimated as amounting to 350,000 bushels.

GERMANS REFUSE TO TRANSMIT SEALED MESSAGE FROM VAN DYKE

Envelope Containing American Consular Agent's Accounts is Returned to the Agent Unopened.

Luxemburg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, Feb. 13, via London—(8:55 p. m.)—The German military authorities here have refused to transmit a package containing the American consular agent's accounts because it was sealed in an envelope addressed to the state department at Washington. The package, under instructions from the commandant, was returned to the agent unopened.

Interference by the German authorities with American official correspondence already has elicited a protest from the state department at Washington. Based on an appeal that was contained in a cablegram forwarded by Dr. Henry VanDyke, the American minister to the Netherlands and Luxemburg, who complained that the German military commander at Treves refused to allow official letters to pass from the minister to the government of the grand duchy, Secretary Bryan on Friday sent a note of protest to ambassador at Berlin for delivery to the German foreign office.

The German government was reminded of the fact that Dr. VanDyke was minister to Luxemburg as well as to the Netherlands; that he had been rendered incommunicado so far as his relations with Luxemburg were concerned and the note expressed confidence that the action of the military commander at Treves was not sanctioned by the imperial German government.

On Thursday on this week an English aeroplane approached the Belgian capital, presumably to bombard the German camp there. A German aeroplane ascended and a fierce fight ensued, ending in victory for the Germans. The British machine suddenly crashed to the ground and its two occupants were picked up dead.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The Naval Collier Vulcan which will leave March 4th, with coal and supplies for the Cruiser Tennessee in East Mediterranean waters also will carry relief supplies for destitute Jews in Palestine. Amsterdam, via London, Feb. 13, (9:20 p. m.)—Restrictions have been imposed on the production of beer in Germany to become effective Feb. 15th, according to the Lokal Anzeiger. From that date until March 1st, it is stated, the breweries are forbidden to use more than fifty per cent of their unusual quantity of malt and after March 1st, they must not exceed forty per cent. The authorities later will fix definitely the amount of malt each brewery may consume.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—Via London, (9 a. m.)—Raoul Davidot, a French prisoner of war, returned to Germany today from a visit to his home in France where he was permitted to see his dying mother. The Frenchman wrote direct to the emperor his request to be allowed to visit his mother, pledging his word of honor to return by March 1st.

The emperor immediately granted the request and Davidot made the trip to France by way of Switzerland. After the death of his mother he returned to the detention camp in Germany.

London, Feb. 13.—(9:32 p. m.)—Forty nine thousand Turkish prisoners, including 527 officers have passed through Pyatigorsk, in the territory of Terek, Circassia, en route to the interior since the war. Turkey began, according to the Petrograd correspondent of Reuters Telegram company. The same despatch says that George T. Marve, ambassador from the United States to Russia, today, formally communicated to the Russian foreign office that German declaration of intention to blockade the British Isles.

A. M. Pendleton of Chanderville died Wednesday of last week, aged 74 years. He had been failing in health for some time but was able to be about his place of business up to the day of his death. He was county clerk of Cass county from 1898 to 1906. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon, Rev. B. O. Aylesworth officiating.

Harry Johnicee of near White Hall fell from a wagon of corn Friday morning, and the heavy load mashed him into the deep mud in passing over his body. He received four broken ribs and a broken collar bone. The boy is about nine years of age, and is the son of Fisher Johnicee. He was in great pain for several days. He is now recovering.

The friendly fight between six citizens of Ashland, for the postmastership there, was brought to a close when Thos. M. McGraugh received the appointment. He will succeed C. F. Douglass who has held that position for the past sixteen years. The defeated candidates for the position were Harry Harding, W. S. Williams, Dan Jones, C. F. Davis and D. O. Hill.

While Gilbert Depoister was assisting in coupling cars in the clay diggings at Clay City recently he had the misfortune to get his hand caught between the couplings, cutting off the little finger of the right hand and mashing another finger quite severely. He was brought to town on a motor car, and a physician dressed the wounds in an attempt to save the finger. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

CHURCHES CELEBRATE CENTENARY OF PEACE

A notable event in church history in America is the corporation of all sects tomorrow in the United States and Canada in the religious observance of the completion of 100 years of peace between the two English-speaking nations. The observance of the occasion by the churches begins a series of observances. For on Feb. 17 and 18 special exercises will be held in the capitals of each state, and on Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday, the school children of the United States and Canada will join in the thanksgiving.

It is estimated by leading churchmen that in more than 300,000 churches of the United States and Canada today's observance will be carried out, and that Sunday Schools and religious societies will make fitting recognition of Peace Sunday.

Commenting on the celebration, President Cyrus Norrhop of the University of Minnesota said recently, "It has been said that such a celebration might seem unjust to our German citizens, for we have always been at peace with Germany. The significant point is not so much that peace between the United States and the British Empire has continued for a century, but that we have lived side by side with one of its colonies without a fort or a soldier or battleship in the Great Lakes to guard the 2,000 miles of boundary. This indeed is the great object lesson to the world."

The officials of the American Peace Society point out the fallacy that lack of defenses and armed defenders invites war. A dozen times war has been talked, and some times seriously, during the past hundred years, but the danger points have passed and our international relations were never more satisfactory than now. Never for a moment have Canadians or the people in the states regretted the absence of warships on the lakes or fortifications and armies on the long frontier.

HANGING AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 13.—Entirely resigned to his fate, Wesley Robinson, a negro awaits the hangman's noose. He has been sentenced to die on Monday, for the murder of his wife on the night of April 2, 1913. He was also indicted for the murder of his 14 years old daughter.

A strange feature of the case was a dream by a Kansas City woman. Nearly a month after the murder the police received a mysterious telephone message directing them to a shed where the remains of the murdered woman were found, and stating that this important clue had been revealed in a dream of the night previous.

The trial showed that Robinson choked his wife to death and then strangled the little girl. After the double murder, he lit his pipe, enjoyed a smoke and made a pot of coffee for himself. He effectually concealed all traces of the tragedy and of the buried bodies until the alleged dream revealed the truth.

MYSTERY PARADE AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—Shrouded in mystery is the pageant to be given tonight by the Loyal Order of Moose. The costumes, floats and effects are all secret with the Boosters' club of the order. Although the city is looking forward to the joys of the Mardi Gras, today's interest centers in the mysterious parade, which will pass through the city tonight.

UNITED STATE PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE.

Purity and Strength of Household Remedies.

That many medicines, such as spirits of peppermint, camphor and ginger, which are frequently used as household remedies, fail of their purpose, is accounted for by the great variation in the strength and purity of many of these preparations as sold in the market. According to an article recently published by the United States Public Health Service, there is considerable variation in the strength of many of the common remedies used in the household.

It is also asserted that the loss of human energy through sickness and deaths from preventable diseases constitutes by far the greatest waste of our present day resources and that it is not generally appreciated that this waste is due either to neglect or ignorance so far as the use of prophylactic or curative measures may be concerned.

A table presenting a compilation from the reports of state chemists shows that of 3,472 samples of ten official articles that are widely used as household remedies, examined in 1912, 1,259, or 38 per cent, were rejected as being adulterated or not in compliance with the official requirements.

A second table shows that of 5,347 samples of the same articles examined during 1912, 1,861 or 35 per cent were rejected.

The preparations included in these tables are more frequently used as household remedies than on the prescriptions of physicians, but are nevertheless recognized medicines the abuse or misuse of which may lead to serious consequences. The author concludes that a more energetic and active control of all drugs and preparations is needed. The described and only efficient method of control involves honesty, knowledge, vigilance and care on the part of the person selling the product.

Members of boards of health and other State and Federal officials entrusted with the enforcement of laws designed to control the purity and strength of medicinal products should call attention to the desirability of having these laws enforced in a way to secure for the purchaser drugs of uniform strength and purity with a view of minimizing as much as possible the untoward or secondary effects of potent medicines irrespective of whether they are used as household remedies or under the direct supervision of a competent physician.

It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the bank the other, which is the master key. If you should lose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

JACKSONVILLE LOSES TO PEORIA

BASKETBALL SCORE 26 TO 24 IN FAVOR OF VISITORS.

Large Crowd Witnesses Fast and Close Contest in New Gymnasium—Game Halted for One Hour on Account of Lights Out.

In a fast and furious game last night in the new gymnasium the Jacksonville high school basketball five went down to defeat before the quintet from the Peoria Central high school by a score of 24 to 26. Trouble at the Jacksonville Railway and Light plant, caused the current to be turned off for an hour, just as the game was to commence and the people sat in total darkness except for the gleam of three pocket lights which the spectators flashed occasionally over the crowd.

Both teams were evenly matched and not more than three points divided the score during the entire contest. At the end of the first half the score stood 15 to 14 in favor of Peoria. The game was won by Peoria in the last ten seconds of play when Auth. made a basket from long range. Reynolds and Roberts for the visitors played the most consistent game, while Boxell rolled up the most points for the locals. Peoria has played ten games this season and lost only one that to Canton, 31 to 40. They have played Jacksonville twice, Springfield, Eureka, Bloomington, Alumni high, Peoria (two games), Normal and Galesburg.

DR. W. P. DUNCAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE SATURDAY

Dr. W. P. Duncan had a narrow escape Saturday evening at 5:45 o'clock while riding along East State street at the junction of the square, when his rig was run into from the rear by an automobile. The doctor had just turned the corner going east when the machine struck his buggy, turning it completely around, twisting the back axle and wheel and breaking the running gear. The horse made a lunge on the side walk and several who were standing near assisted the physician. The driver of the auto opened the cut off and did not even stop to inquire into the damage he had done. The lamp posts were put on the square for the purpose of avoiding accidents of every kind and drivers of cars should exercise more care in turning corners quickly. The doctor happened to be driving a gentle horse, a fact which assisted in his miraculous escape.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

The Value of Soybean and Alfalfa in Milk Production.

Recent Experiments show that alfalfa as well as soybeans can replace much of the high priced protein concentrates. Other legumes will answer the same purpose in a lesser degree. Clover is especially valuable in this respect, the not as good results should be expected per ton as with the soybean or alfalfa hay.

It is evident that the extended use of milling by-products or other commercial feeds is not necessary in milk production where legumes can be grown well. However, it often proves profitable to use such feeds and unless the use of home-grown feeds will yield as great a profit, all things considered, the commercial feeds should be used.
